Our intellectual property may include:

- event concepts;
- décor concepts;
- creative themes;
- mood boards;
- styling concepts;
- layouts;
- drawings;
- designs;
- proposals;
- photographs;
- videos;
- written materials;
- graphics;
- branding; and
- other original creative work.

2. OWNERSHIP

Unless expressly agreed otherwise in writing, B-Among retains ownership of its pre-existing intellectual property and proprietary creative concepts.

3. PROPOSALS AND CONCEPTS

A proposal, quotation, mood board or concept provided to a prospective client is provided for the purpose of evaluating B-Among's services.

It may not be:

- copied;
- reproduced;
- shared with another decorator or event planner for implementation;
- commercially exploited; or
- adapted for another event

without B-Among's written permission.

4. CLIENT MATERIALS

A client retains ownership of intellectual property supplied by the client.

The client grants B-Among permission to use client-provided materials to the extent necessary to provide the agreed services.

5. COMMISSIONED WORK

Where a client commissions bespoke artwork, design or other creative work, the ownership and permitted uses shall be determined by the applicable agreement.

6. PORTFOLIO USE

Subject to applicable privacy and publicity requirements, B-Among may display completed work in its portfolio and marketing materials.

7. THIRD-PARTY RIGHTS

B-Among will respect third-party intellectual property rights.

Clients are responsible for ensuring that materials they provide to B-Among do not infringe third-party rights.

8. INFRINGEMENT

Unauthorized copying, reproduction or commercial use of B-Among's protected creative work may constitute an infringement of applicable intellectual property rights.
